

Panel Built, Inc. custom generator enclosures manufactured for facilities running standby, prime, or continuous generator systems. With Panel Built's proven record of quality prefabricated buildings, generator enclosures offer the same rigidity as all of our structures with the sleekness and durability of aluminum. Each enclosure is custom designed and engineered to perfectly fit customer needs and protect the generator from the harsh weather conditions.

Generator Enclosures

Features

- .180 Aluminum, welded frame construction
- .080 Aluminum exterior skin with powder coated finish and mineral wool insulation
- 12 Standard color options
- Caulked Seams
- Fully welded roof
- Standard or custom fabricated doors with panic release handle

Standard Options

- Level 1- Sound Attenuated (15 Dba reduction at 7m)
- Level 2 - Sound Attenuated (25 Dba reduction at 7m)
- Alterations to enclosure to meet site specific size restrictions
- Fire suppression design
- Electrical packages available

UL 142 Sub Base Tank

- Heavy gauge steel side channels
- Vent, Fill, & Alarm Packages

UL 2085 Sub Base Tank

- Protective, Double Wall design
- Thermal insulation provides 2 Hour Fire Rating